601 N JOHN YOUNG PKWY, ORLANDO

Fuel contract: the station can transfer free and clear; the buyer pays ± $150K damages to the existing supplier, opening the door to re-branding incentives from a new fuel company.

Environmental: (1) the bank covers remediation costs until a No Further Action (NFA) certificate is issued; (2) after NFA, the underground-tank insurer assumes responsibility; (3) the site is expected to be fully remediated, supporting alternative uses in the future.

Financials are not provided; the source advises underwriting for dirt value and upside potential.

The source's cover line reads "19,333 SF Gross / 1.26 Acres – Office Zoning City of Winter Park," while its 601 N John Young Pkwy detail page states land of ± 2.5 acres; the source states both. The $2,150,000 price appears on the cover beside both addresses and on the 601 N John Young Pkwy page; the source gives no separate terms for 841 US-27 N.
