OVERVIEW

Six short-term rental homes, available now

The Azur Resort offers an opportunity to enter the Orlando short-term rental market. Its Davenport location places guests just minutes from Walt Disney World, Universal Studios and a wealth of attractions, supporting consistent demand year-round.

Ownership is designed to be hands-free: investors are connected with a local resort management company that provides a complete turnkey solution, handling marketing and guest bookings, 24/7 concierge services, property maintenance and housekeeping.

Units like The Amethyst feature spacious layouts with up to six bedrooms, private pools and luxury finishes, appealing to larger families and groups seeking an elevated vacation experience. Owners gain immediate rental income alongside the long-term appreciation potential of real estate in one of America's most enduring tourist destinations.

REVENUE POTENTIAL

Maximize your revenue

PERFORMANCE TIER	REVENUE POTENTIAL
Best – Top 10%: prime location & luxury amenities, low owner use, aggressive rates & minimum lengths of stays	$34,029
Middle performer: good location and some high-end amenities, higher owner use, moderately aggressive rates & minimum lengths of stay year round	$29,001
Lower revenue: less than ideal location and fair amenities, owner high-season use, above market rates & long min. lengths of stay	$23,977

Financially, the model combines professional revenue management, premium pricing power and high occupancy potential, with a rental strategy targeting the most lucrative guest segments. Tiers and figures are reproduced as printed in the source flyer, which does not state the period they cover.
